

Deltek Costpoint Hot Fix Readme

Release Date: November 16, 2018

Use Timesheet Line Date as Default Effective Bill Date on Timesheets

This Costpoint release provides a new Timesheet Line Date option which you can select as the Default Effective Bill Date Method on the Configure Labor Settings screen. When you select the Timesheet Line Date option, timesheet applications in Costpoint will apply the following:

- The applications will use the timesheet line date as the default effective bill date of timesheets that you enter or import.
- If there is no timesheet line date, the applications will use the timesheet date as the default effective bill date value.
- If the timesheet type is either D-Correcting or C-Correcting, and the Effective Bill Date Options - Use Reference Date in Correcting Timesheets check box is selected, but there is no timesheet line date; then the applications will use the reference date as the default effective bill date.

The updated defaulting of effective bill dates will be implemented in the following Costpoint timesheet applications:

- Create Auto-Pay Timesheets (LDPDUMTS)
- Create Employee Allowance Timesheet Lines (LDPADD)
- Create Leave Payout Timesheets (LDPLPTS)
- Import Timesheets (AOPUTLTS)
- Import Timesheets from Deltek Time and Expense (LDPUPET)
- Manage Correcting Timesheets (LDMCTIME)
- Manage Timesheets (LDMTIME)
