Enhancements

Touch App Enhancements

The following enhancements are available when you upgrade to the Touch app version 4.2:

Enhancements for Quick Capture with ICR

Deltek Tracking: 1913153

Quick Capture introduces new features to the camera screen when Intelligent Camera Recognition (ICR) is enabled.

The following features are now available in iOS:

- Auto Capture – When enabled, Auto Capture automatically attempts to capture the receipt by identifying a green overlay on the receipt and taking a picture.
- Backup to Gallery – When enabled, captured receipt images are now backed up to your phone's gallery alongside saving them in Maconomy.

The following features are now available in Android:

- Attach PDF – Select a PDF file stored on your device and attach it to an expense sheet line.

- Auto Doc Detect and Crop – Detect and crop documents (such as receipts) in front of the camera.
- Auto Blur Detection – Identifies blurred pictures and prompts you to retry capturing a clearer image.
- Auto Torch (Ambience Detection) – Controls the automatic activation of your device's torch (light) when capturing receipts. If you prefer to manually control the torch, you can easily disable this feature in the settings.
- Handsfree Document – When enabled, photos of your receipts are automatically captured without the need to press the capture button.
- Backup Scans to Photo Gallery – When enabled, you can choose to back up all your scans to your device's camera gallery.

Software Issues Resolved

Defect 1970537

Unable to Login with OAuth in Android

Previously, some Android users were unable to log in with Okta or Azure credentials when using the Touch app on a Maconomy 2.6.1 system. This error is corrected.

Defect 2009897

Unable to Approve Time Sheet with a Number Sign

Previously, it was not possible to see the detailed approval screen for the time sheet if the employee number contains a number sign (#). This error is corrected.

Defect 2014884Incorrect Expense Sheet Line Content

Previously, when a user submitted an expense sheet with multiple lines of expense justifications, changing the unit price on one line could cause the information of another line to be displayed. This error is corrected.
