Release 2.2

Released: November 8, 2024

New Features

This section includes summaries of the new features in this release.

Reseller BIMsmith Privileges

Resellers can now update the BIMsmith link for other building product manufacturers (BPMs). On the Manage Listing page in edit mode, the BIMsmith link is available for modification.

Enhancements

This section includes summaries of the enhancements made to existing features in this release.

Text-Only Manufacturer Properties

You can now request for manufacturer properties/options that include only a text description for your product listings. This enables you to define custom manufacturer properties that do not require options or values for user selection.

In Specpoint for A/E users, design professionals from A/E firms can view and modify these properties as paragraphs that include only a property key and in-line text. These manufacturer property paragraphs are added to their projects when they add product listings with manufacturer options included.

Software Issues Resolved

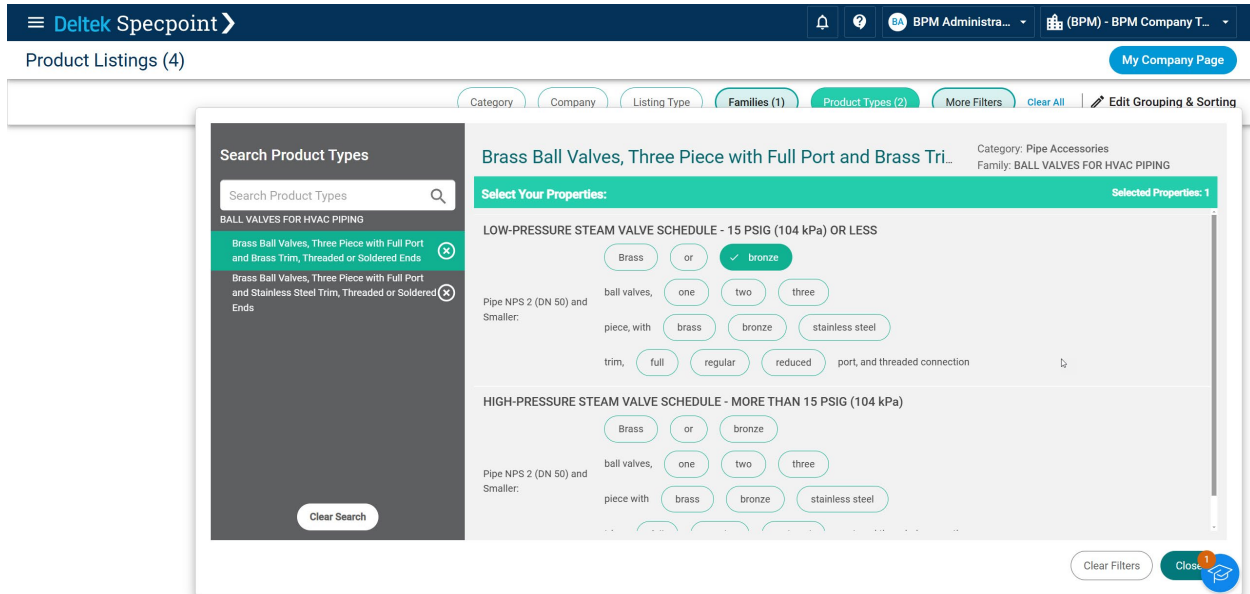

This section includes summaries of the resolved software issues in this release.

Incorrect Manufacturer Name

Defect 1661781: In Specpoint for A/E Users, select product listings displayed with their respective building product manufacturers' account name instead of their display name.

Unexpected Filter Selection for Product Type Properties

Defect 2106474: When you filtered product listings in the Product Listings page by two similar Product Types and then selected a value in the first product type's property that both product types share, the platform selected the same value in the same property for the other product type.
